Friends of the Clifton Center

Become a member of the Friends of the Clifton Center and help bring a vibrant mix of great music, film, art, and ideas to our community. Whether you're interested in taking part in the Friends' social and educational programs, participating in one of our many volunteer opportunities, or you just want to help provide the financial support the Clifton Center needs to thrive, your membership will help us present programming you won't find anywhere else in the region. Best of all, you'll receive tangible benefits in the process. So join with us as we continue a transformation of the Clifton Center that is making it a focal point of Louisville's cultural landscape.
